

The British Virgin Islands Health Services Authority

Mammogram Services Resume at Peebles Hospital

The Mammogram Service has resumed at Peebles Hospital. A mammogram is a specialized type of x-ray used in the screening for breast cancer as well as investigating patients with symptoms concerning for breast cancer. At Peebles Hospital we utilize both digital mammography and tomosynthesis (3D) methods in order to assist in early cancer detection.

For more information and appointments: (284)852-7727 or via email at x-ray@bvihsa.vg
